2.2 Bangladesh Aviation
Key airport information may also be found at: World Aero Data information on Bangladesh

For information on Bangladesh airports contact details, please see the following link:

4.5 Bangladesh Airport Contact List

At present the Civil Aviation Authority in Bangladesh’s activities are being carried out from 3 international airports, 5 domestic airports and 7 STOL (Short Take-off and Landing) airports, with 1 new domestic airport under construction:

International Airports:
Zia International Airport, Dhaka
This is the largest and the principal international airport of the country. Almost all international passengers embark at and disembark from Zia. More than 90% of all aeronautical functions of CAAB are carried out from here.

Shah Amanat International Airport, Chittagong
It is the second largest airport and the alternate airport to ZIA.

Osmani International Airport, Sylhet
This airport in the North-East corner of the country has been upgraded to an international airport in order to facilitate the people of the district (there is a large number of residents from the United Kingdom).

Domestic airports
1. Saidpur Airport
2. Shah Makhduum Airport, Rajshahi,
3. Jessore Airport
4. Barisal Airport
5. Cox’s Bazar Airport
Khan Jahan Ali Airport, Bagerhat, under construction
Short Take-off and Landing
Lalmonirhat, Thakurgaon, Ishurdi, Shamshernagar, Tejgaon, Comilla, Bogra

Procedures for Foreign Registered Aircraft

For information on Bangladesh airports additional information, please see the following document:

Bangladesh Airports Additional Information

Bangladesh Airports Image

Note: The information provided in the attached documents, which has been taken from the old DLCA, does not match the structure of the new LCA and is therefore provided separately.

For information on Bangladesh airports contact details, please see the following link:

4.5 Bangladesh Airport Contact List