This mode of transport is insignificant due to the navigability on the two rivers (Niger from Kouroussa and Milo from Kankan) towards Bamako (Republic of Mali) being possible over a period of only four months in the year.